

An aerial map of Canicattì, Sicily, showing the town layout, roads, and a red circle highlighting a specific area near the center. The map includes labels for various streets such as Via Dante Alighieri, Via S. Vito, and Via S. Vito. It also shows the location of the Centro Direzionale Canicattì, the Ufficio Saporando, and the Ufficio Meccanica Canicattì. A red circle is drawn around a building complex in the center of the town, near the intersection of Via S. Vito and Via S. Vito. The map also shows the location of the Chiesa di S. Vito and the Chiesa di S. Vito. The map is oriented with North at the top. The red circle highlights a specific area of interest, likely related to the research project mentioned in the text. The map shows a mix of urban and rural areas, with buildings, roads, and fields visible. The red circle is placed on a building complex, possibly a residential or commercial area. The map is a detailed aerial view, providing a clear view of the town's layout and surrounding areas. The red circle is a key feature, indicating the specific location of interest for the research project. The map is a valuable tool for understanding the spatial context of the research project and for identifying potential areas for further investigation.
